

JCI USA OFFICIALLY WELCOMES

NEWLYN WING
Association Manager

We are pleased to announce that Newlyn Wing will be joining JCI USA as our new Association Manager. Newlyn comes from a background of working with nonprofits and associations, bringing exceptional expertise of aligning grassroots and national efforts to drive collective impact. As a leader within National and Orlando Asian American communities, he holds roles as the President of the National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP) Orlando chapter and Chief Strategy Officer role with NAAAP National. Newlyn is passionate about strategies and partnerships that give individuals a platform for building their leadership and having true impact in their industries and communities.

He has led the development of leadership and wellness programs both in Central Florida and nationally to build Asian American leadership communities and community coalitions. He most recently worked at the U.S. Tennis Association, the national governing body of tennis in the United States. In his role he oversaw a national collegiate club sports program that gave non-varsity athletes opportunities to compete while encouraging them to be involved with growing tennis in their communities and building their leadership skills. A key part of this work included creating pipelines across USTA programs to keep high school and college students involved with tennis across stages of life, a skill he looks to bring to JCI USA.

Newlyn's educational background includes a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Professional Tennis Management and a minor in Marketing from Ferris State University as well as a Master's degree in Hospitality & Tourism Management from San Diego State University. He is also a member of the American Society of Association Executives and is a Certified Association Executive candidate.

Newlyn was born and raised in Grand Rapids, Michigan and is a proud Detroit sports fan. He has also spent time in Aspen, Colorado and Indianapolis, Indiana and is now based in Orlando, Florida. Outside of work, Newlyn is also an avid reader, a beer connoisseur and guitar player when he is not playing tennis. Newlyn is excited to join the JCI USA family and looks forward to connecting with our members and supporting us as we make our next 100 years of impact!
