

NVP Gwendolyn Labovitch, Minnesota

Area of Focus: Member Relations

Assigned to the states of: Michigan,
Wisconsin, California, Nebraska, South
Dakota, Wyoming, Oregon and Alaska

Since joining JCI in 2014, Gwen has been a devoted, creative, and determined member of JCI. She ran many successful projects, and has held many local and state offices including serving two-year terms as JCI Minnesota State President. She was chapter president in 2016 and chapter won JCI USA Clarence H. Howard Award for Outstanding Chapter. She has been honored with many awards for her work and passion including two JCI USA Bradley Trafton Awards for Outstanding State Staff , JCI USA Charles Kulp Jr. Award for Outstanding Chapter President, JCI USA George O. Wilson Award for Outstanding State Organization, and Allen Whitefield Award for Outstanding State President.

Gwen lives in South Saint Paul, MN, with her brother, Cory, and cats, Pretzel and Mittens. She is active in her local church and serves on the Board of Directors of Neighbors, INC. Gwen works at Ecolab, INC, and holds bachelor's degrees in education and theology. Gwen is an avid reader, loves going to baseball games and movies, and drinks a huge amount of coffee. Gwen loves visiting unique coffee shops and has over 100 unique coffee mugs (and counting). Gwen, also, has a very big collection of gnomes. Gwen is a proud member of JCI Shakopee and JCI Minnesota, and Gwen is passionate about the mission and vision of JCI.